

certain that it is perfin pattern C85. The location of the user of this perfin is listed in the Catalog of U.S. Perfins as New York City. I believe this to be an error. It should be noted that this picture postcard was addressed to Josephine Thompson at the Court House in Ottawa, Illinois which tends to lead credence to the theory that the location was Cook County, Illinois. The other points of interest are:

- o The card was posted at Ludington, MI on January 18, 1969
- o Pentwater, MI is the home of our former U.S. Catalog editor. Perhaps he would care to comment.
- o Bulletin Editor, John Lyding, tells me that this usage is probably an "Unscheduled Benefit".

Pentwater, MI Vacation

James E. Estes (#2649)

I acquired the card shown on the next page at FLOREX, a local stamp show. While I tried to trace the pattern, I can not claim to have done an accurate rendition.

The pattern is Cook County and I am fairly

PENTWATER, MICHIGAN

The picturesque natural harbor along the shores of Lake Michigan is ideal for all kinds of boating pleasures. Fine marinas close to downtown, ~~gvt~~ docking space and services for boats, large or small. For an ideal vacation visit the Pentwater Area.

July - July 18-19, 1969
Not having the
"summer resort"
weather we would like. Lakes away from swimming in the lake
which the "kids" enjoy
M.J.W.
32512-C

Photo by & Pub. for Pentwater Center, Mich. 1969.

dp DEXTER PRESS, INC.
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

PRAY FOR PEACE

5c

Post Card

Mrs. Joseph
Carr

D

